

Who is your Shooting Star?

OVERVIEW

The aim of this exciting experience is to produce a clipped version of a feature length film through linking a number of key scenes. Each team is given responsibility for scripting, storyboarding, rehearsing and producing the finished article. The completed film clips and sound tracks are synchronised and shown back to the teams.

OBJECTIVE

This engaging experience ensures maximum interaction for all participants with diverse roles and essential input to producing their interpretation of the chosen film.

BENEFITS FOR YOUR TEAM

Encourages maximum interaction in a unique environment where communication, creativity and a sense of humour are essential. Group dynamics will be tested and relationships developed in a fun and motivating experience.

“The best team building experience in over 11 years of running events.”

L'Oreal

ISSUES AND SKILLS ADDRESSED:

- Communication
- Creative thinking
- Negotiation skills
- Project and group working
- Relationship development
- Imagination and creativity
- Leadership

PROGRAMME INCLUDES:

- Scenario and team briefing
- Professional event staff
- Professional event manager
- Full event management
- Professional presenter
- Props, costumes, make up kits
- Clapperboards
- All AV equipment, cameras and lighting
- First aid equipment and qualified first aider
- Debrief and prize giving
- £5m Public Liability Insurance

SUITABLE FOR:

- Team building
- Conference support
- Merging teams
- Fun away days
- Incentive and reward
- Training support
- Staff entertainment
- Motivation days

NUMBERS:

- 40 – 160

DURATION:

- Half day or Full day

LOCATION:

- Indoor or Outdoor

A challenge for intellect, imagination and team-working skills that everyone can enjoy.

Complementary activities to consider

Themed gala evening, casino tables, look-a-likes, cover band, celebrity speaker, limousines